2. Characteristic Spirit and General Objectives of the School

St. John of God School is a Catholic primary school for girls, under the patronage of the Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, and the trusteeship of the Sisters of St. John of God. We strive to make our school a place where Gospel values find daily expression in all our policies and practices.

The Parish community to which this school and its surrounding area belongs is the parish of St. Joseph and St. Benildus. This school has been a part of the liturgical life of the church since 1968, when the church was established. We are proud to carry on the traditions and vision of the Sisters of St. John of God, who established this school in 1897. Their motto "Caritas Christi Urget Nos" (The love of Christ urges us) and their values of compassion, hospitality, justice, respect and the Faith View of life have had, and continue to have a profound influence on the ethos and work of this school.

As a Catholic school we endeavour:

- to offer a distinctive vision of life and corresponding philosophy of education based on the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
- to strive to create a learning environment where every child is encouraged and enabled to develop to their full and unique potential as human beings, made in the image and likeness of God.
- to seek to form pupils who will unselfishly use their gifts for the common good and are committed to work for a more just and caring society.
- to be a welcoming and inclusive community that is respectful and tolerant of all religious traditions and beliefs.

- to work in partnership with parents and the parish community to keep the light of faith received at baptism burning brightly.
- to provide opportunities for worship through prayer and the celebration of liturgy and the sacraments.

“Catholic Ethos” in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims to promote:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith
- (e) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects
- (f) a living relationship with God and with other people
- (g) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus
- (h) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith and which school provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St John of God School shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.
